

1. Existing Geometry of a triangle with corners labeled 'a', 'b', and 'c'

2. The designer would like to add a point 'm' halfway between 'b' and 'c'.
This is done by replacing the original sequence with a new sequence.

3. In the resulting sequence the original turtle operations between 'b' and 'c' have been completely replaced with those shown here.

